South Philly has been home to the S. 9th Street Festival for half a century. One weekend each year, up to 50,000 people celebrate on seven continuous city blocks— with a financial impact of half a million dollars. It’s an extravaganza for the senses — streets lined with vendors offering a variety of delicious delicacies, live entertainment, fun contests and more!

Take this unique opportunity to introduce your products to a broad spectrum of consumers through your company’s presence in our advertising and social media campaigns.

100% Philly, 100% Fun.

ABOUT PHILADELPHIA'S SOUTH 9TH STREET MARKET

Begun in the mid-to-late 1880s, the South 9th Street Shopping District runs along 9th Street from Wharton to Fitzwater Streets. Today, while the outdoor vendors and many of the original Italian businesses remain, the market has diversified with new waves of immigration, providing a well-rounded shopping experience. Over 200 active businesses (open daily) host one million visitors a year across all demographic and income ranges.
